HARIT FARMS & RETREAT

Somewhere we all have our ancestral instincts that motivates us and push us towards nature. A reason that we go on holidays to unknown territories. For one to have peace, rediscover oneself and rejuvenate but due to our work life and busy city routines we don't get these breaks quite often. One major reason being the distance to these holiday destinations and therefore we end up spending our weekends either sitting at home or on the roads to shopping malls and grocery stores.

At Harit Farms & Retreat it is our humble attempt to provide an opportunity to a limited few who agree with us and are ready for this life enhancing experience. One by being part of such community of similar minded people other being in the lap of nature with your own world around you. A home away from hectic city confine, yet close enough to get back anywhere in Delhi NCR within couple of hours.

We at Harit Infra Projects have come up with a farm house project that will cater to all your needs of modern lifestyle with amalgam of traditional Ayurvedic, Naturopathic and Yogic practices.
